Frequency: Bimonthly

Canadian Social Science is an English and French language journal of the Canadian Academy of Oriental and Occidental Culture. It is published on a bimonthly basis, and covers Humanities and Social Sciences.

The purpose of the Journal is to provide a forum to share knowledge related to a broad range of topics including political science, sociology, history, social work, geography, international studies, women's studies, children's learning and health, economics, business ethics, cities, intellectual property rights, language acquisition, privacy, the aging population, quality of life, technology in aboriginal communities, dispute resolution, environment, and corporations and sustainable development.

The journal seeks original manuscripts reporting scholarly work on Humanities and Social Sciences. Original articles may be empirical and qualitative studies, review articles, methodological articles, brief reports, case studies and letters to the Editor.

Authors could send manuscripts by E-mail:

For citation format, we require parenthetical citations within the text rather than endnotes or footnotes. Citation in the text provides information, usually the name of the author, the date of publication (the Author-Date System), and if need, the page number(s), to lead the reader to the accompanying full bibliographical entry in the reference list which is placed at the end of the research paper. We accept the APA (American Psychological Association) style, the CMS (Chicago Manual of Style), the MLA (Modern Language Association) style.

For details on manuscripts submissions, please see the Author Guidelines in our website:
